TRAVEL ADVISORY

SIX AIRLINES RELOCATING TERMINALS AT LAGUARDIA THIS SATURDAY; MTA'S M60 BUS

ALSO RETURNING TO STREAMLINE PASSENGER TRAVEL TO AND FROM TERMINAL A

Changes are designed to make travel more efficient for passengers and will locate JetBlue and Alaska Airlines in Terminal A (Marine Air Terminal),

*American in Terminal B, Delta in Terminals C and D, and Frontier and Spirit in Terminal
D*

American Airlines, Delta Air Lines, JetBlue Airways and three other airlines will consolidate their flight operations as part of major relocations of airline carriers at LaGuardia Airport beginning this Saturday, an initiative designed to streamline passenger travel in conjunction with ongoing construction to transform the 78-year-old facility into a brand new, unified airport.

Effective Saturday, December 9:

- American will consolidate its operations - including American Shuttle - at Terminal B, ceasing its flights at Terminal C
- Delta will co-locate its LaGuardia operations in Terminals C and D by relocating its Delta Shuttle to Chicago and Washington, D.C. from Terminal A (Marine Air Terminal) to Terminal C
- JetBlue and Alaska will move operations to Terminal A (Marine Air Terminal) from Terminal B
- Frontier and Spirit also will move from Terminal B and begin operations at Terminal D (Departing passengers, however, must check in at Terminal C.)
- In coordination with the Metropolitan Transportation Authority, the M60 Select Bus Service will add Terminal A to its route for both pick-ups and drop-offs, while continuing its current service to Terminals B, C and D.

Below is a chart further outlining the upcoming changes:

Founded in 1921, the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey builds, operates, and maintains many of the most important transportation and trade infrastructure assets in the country. The agency's network of aviation, ground, rail, and seaport facilities is among the busiest in the country, supports more than 550,000 regional jobs, and generates more than $23 billion in annual wages and $80 billion in annual economic activity. The Port Authority also owns and manages the 16-acre World Trade Center site, where the 1,776-foot-tall One World Trade Center is now the tallest skyscraper in the Western Hemisphere. The Port Authority receives no tax revenue from either the State of New York or New Jersey or from the City of New York. The agency raises the necessary funds for the improvement, construction or acquisition of its facilities primarily on its own credit. For more information, please visit <http://www.panynj.gov>.
